

Virtual Learning Community

Frequently Asked Questions & Answers

What type of content are you looking for?

There is no particular content; consider leading, teaching or sharing a skill, interest and/or area of expertise. You could also forward the submission form to someone you know who has a skill or area of expertise they would be willing to teach virtually and have the skills to do so successfully.

What types of sessions are you looking for?

The submission process welcomes a variety of virtual platforms and formats. Our team is happy to discuss options and explore possibilities.

Does the session need to be new?

If you have a program that you have already offered and are willing to offer it again, please do!

Can I submit more than one session?

Absolutely! Our recommendation is that programs are between 40-60 minutes. If you have too much content for one session, why not try a series? We've learned from our evaluations, that participants enjoy seeing each other more than once and connecting and sharing over shared interests and information.

Is there a deadline to submit?

No deadlines. Programs are needed ongoing! Submission dates are weekly. After you submit, sessions will be reviewed by a committee of youth leaders, volunteers and staff using our PYD learning review process adapted for virtual learning.

I would like a little more information about the Virtual Learning Community before I submit a proposal. Where can I go?

Feel free to join us for our Virtual Learning Community Office Hours on Mondays from 3-4 p.m. Or check out our website at: <https://4h.extension.wisc.edu/virtual-learning-community/>

Okay! I'm convinced. Where do I submit?

Submissions can be made at: https://uwmadison.co1.qualtrics.com/jfe/form/SV_2idXsm8tPCVGILz. With the easy to use back button, you can explore the submission form to learn a little more about the types of sessions and content.

What happens after I submit?

Our committee will respond to submissions with a follow up e-mail or call to the primary contact within a week or so of the submission.
