Below are suggested questions to adapt for nominees (i.e. deceased 4-H pioneer, 4-H volunteer, 4-H donor, external collaborating organization or business, community leader, or Extension professional).

Clear evidence of significant contributions with impact and influence on 4-H is essential. Describe things the nominee established that were multi-faceted, unique and grew because of their leadership. Contributions and leadership that extend beyond county impact are important. This includes changes or additions to 4-H programs initiated by the nominee or as a member of a team. Supportive data should include numbers that show 4-H growth, an increase in member and leadership opportunities and/or evidence of how the nominee extended 4-H potentials to existing and new audiences. Evidence may also focus on how 4-H membership impacted career and life choices and a continued connection with 4-H.

 - How has the nominee's leadership contributions directly or indirectly benefited 4-H?
 - What has been the influence of 4-H on the ability of the individual to assume leadership positions.

This includes tangible things done, such as programs implemented, resources raised, writing, business success, number of people affected, measured impacts on the lives of others, etc.
